Calling All Golf & Steak Aficionados to Marco Island Marriott Beach Resort Tee & T-Bone Includes Accommodations, Two Rounds on The Rookery at Marco, $100 Voucher for Rookery Steakhouse & Daily Breakfast

Marco Island, FL – April 13, 2007 – Two of life's greatest pleasures – golf and steak -- have been combined in Marco Island Marriott Beach Resort's new Tee & T-Bone Package. Offering the best in golf and dining in South Florida, the package includes accommodations in a Gulf-view guestroom with a private balcony, two rounds on Audubon-endorsed The Rookery at Marco with complimentary use of golf carts, a $100 voucher for Rookery Steakhouse and daily breakfast for two. Available year-round, seasonal Tee & T-Bone rates start at $379 per night, based on a two-night minimum stay.*

Located inside the new $10-million Clubhouse, the Rookery Steakhouse is unique in South Florida because it serves the finest prime beef from Allen Brothers of Chicago, along with chops, seafood, chicken, creative side dishes and decadent desserts. Travelers can also enjoy daily breakfast in the recently renovated Tropiks restaurant or while soaking up the morning sun on their private balcony overlooking the Gulf of Mexico.

The Rookery at Marco golf course, a private course recently redesigned by Robert Cupp, Jr., features five tee boxes on each of its 18 holes and instructions at The Faldo School by Marriott. Committed to conserving the ecological balance on Marco Island, The Rookery at Marco provides areas on the golf course where native birds and wildlife can thrive.
